

The Uncooperative Flying Carpet
By Michele Clark McConnochie

Friendship

“Meanwhile, Persis had also gotten to her feet and stood next to Rory ... I’ve known her ever since we had to move house to a different area of Melas and I changed school. It’s tough being the new kid, but straight away we hit it off and stood up for each other. She stood up for me again now.”

“Oh no.
Not her.
Anyone but her.
Not Olive Amanda Ayres, my arch-enemy at school. Not old “Ayres and Graces” herself.
What was she doing here?”

Sabrina has different feelings for Persis than for Olive. One is her best friend, the other starts out as her enemy.

- 🦋 Why do you think that Sabrina and Olive don’t like each other at the start of the book?
- 🦋 What does Sabrina do to make it up to Olive?
- 🦋 What do Sabrina and Persis have in common?
- 🦋 Olive has seen Bridget, Sabrina’s stepmother. Sabrina doesn’t trust Bridget. How would Sabrina feel if she found out that Olive had talked to Bridget and Bridget had helped them?
